The Directory will contain the names, address and business or profession of every person residing in it, arranged under classification, "Drug Store," "Dry Goods," etc. The principal offices for cards to appear in the "Nashville Union Directory" will be $15 for one year, or $2 for six months, which is the shortest period for which a card will be taken.

McKenzie M. E. Church, Sunday service Preaching at 10 o'clock a.m., and 7½ p.m., by Col. Dr. Jacques. Sunday School at 9 o'clock a.m. Free seats.

Exercises.—John Morgan was subjected to the discipline of the Recorder yesterday for running a dray without license.

Stoners.—We were gratified with a heavy thunderstorm last evening, the lightning was continuous and vivid.

Water.—Alfred Rhoads and Wm. Feltz were yesterday submitted to the peculiar manipulation of the Recorder, because they had taken water without being duly licensed to do so.

Berry Sealing.—Crooker & Co. were before the Recorder yesterday, charged with selling on Sunday. A fine of five dollars was imposed.

New Theatre.—That Miss Avonia Jones possesses power, as well as delicacy and sweetness, her admirers generally claim; to-night she will furnish the test by which her merits in that respect may be estimated. She performs Lady Macbeth, Chahapeys play of Macbeth. Those who have seen such actresses as Charlotte Cushman, in this piece, will feel no small pleasure in finding Miss Jones equal to her. Miss Jones on this occasion. The play will be performed with all the accessories, including the striking music of the composer, Locke.

Consumers.—Eleven individuals, accused of over-consumption of whisky, were before the Recorder yesterday—he administered his great consumption panacea, a fine dollar fine to each patient.

No Driver.—One King left his team standing on Market near Church on Thursday while he went into a saloon to take a drink. A negro ran his wagon against the dray and upset it, for doing which King threw stones at him. King had to pay thirteen dollars for having his dray in the street without a driver.

Trunks.—We hear of many sets of pretty trunks going in the city, and advise all to look to their door and shutter fastenings, their yards and out-houses, and to have an eye unstrangely looking near their premises. Caution is safety.

James Paxton.—A large share of the Recorder's time at the court yesterday was taken up with the hearing of two families residing under the same roof, Andrew Cushing and his wife, and Thos. Vaughn and his wife. The evidences showed that continual quarrelling went on, and one party had removed a portion of the slings over the bed, and the other had removed the window sills were frequently poured which lay down on the bed and carpeting. This led to a retaliation of curses which had no effect in stopping the miasma. The Recorder evidently felt like one of the persons in Romeo and Juliet, to impress a pest upon both their houses, and find them terribly neglected.

Nearness.—The warm weather is upon us, and attention to the proper removal of putrid and decaying matter is important as a sanitary regulation. The other day we passed a number of boxes and barrels in an alley, in which were refuse vegetables, and a dozen or more dead rats and a full supply of family groceries just received.
